

1177

It is said that the Ponte Vecchio (over the river Arno) in Florence, was originally built in 1177 and that it was rebuilt in 1345; it is still in use.

1177

1912 Dates J-BK

Italy & Germany

Reconciliation of the Emperor and the Pope.

The CHAM came from the east and sacked Angkor. Eventually King JAYAVARMAN VII took his revenge and then turned to rebuilding Angkor.

He dedicated his new capital Angkor THOM ("the great city") to a new protector: the Buddha

1177

Angkor Wat was captured and sacked by CHAM invaders from LAOS.

1179 King JAYAVARMAN VII conquered the CHAM, but the city of Angkor Wat's days were numbered

1912 Dates J-BK

1177-1202

Scandinavia
SVERRE was king of Norway